

Mar 29 to Apr 9 / 1865

With a force of 116,000 effectives, Grant manoeuvred and drove out of their entrenchments in front of Richmond and Petersburg about 52,000 Confederates and then with 72,000 men pursuing them for 80 mi the remainder of the Confederate Army estimated at 37,000 captured, dispersed. Finally surrounded & received 28,231 Confederate prisoners